13. The Customer shall pay each invoice submitted by Janet in respect of the Fee within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice. Customer's Responsibilities:

15. The Customer must ensure that its use of the Janet Services complies with the Janet Acceptable Use Policy and the Janet Security Policy (copies of which are available on the Janet website).

16. The Customer is bound by the Terms for the Provision of the Janet Service (except for clauses 29 and 38, which shall not apply).

Order of Precedence:

17. Should there be any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Licence and the provisions of the other documents referred to in Clauses 15 and 16, then the following order of descending precedence shall be applied: first, this Licence; second, the Terms for the Provision of the Janet Service; third, the Janet Security Policy; and fourth, the Janet Acceptable Use Policy.

If this Licence is terminated under Clause 19 and the fee has been paid to Janet in advance, the Fee will not be refunded to the Customer. If this Licence is terminated (for whatever reason) and the Fee or any part thereof is to be paid to Janet in arrears, termination will not affect the Customer's liability to pay the Fee or any part thereof.

General

21. This Licence is personal to the Customer and the Customer may not assign this Licence without the prior written consent of Janet.

22. If any provision of these Terms is held to be unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, all other provisions will nevertheless continue in full force and effect.

23. No failure or delay by Janet in exercising any right or remedy under this Licence will operate as a waiver or it, nor will any partial exercise of any right or remedy preclude the further exercise of it or the exercise of any other right or remedy.

24. All notices which are required to be given under this Licence must be in writing and must be sent by first class prepaid letter or by facsimile transmission to the address of the intended recipient set out in Schedule 1 (or such other address which the recipient designates by notice given in accordance with this Clause 24). SCHEDULE ONE

The ISDN Invoicing Service

29. The Janet Videoconferencing Service (JVCS) supports multipoint videoconferencing using the H.320/ISDN and H.323/IP standards.

30. Organisations making use of H.320 videoconferencing must provide their own ISDN lines locally and make provision to cover the cost of ISDN call charges.

31. In usual circumstances Janet Videoconferencing Service will issue a dial-in number to enable an H.320 videoconferencing endpoint to participate in a videoconference. However, it is recognised that in some instances it is appropriate for Janet Videoconferencing Service to dial-out over ISDN to service users. When this option is used, Janet will invoice service users for the cost of the ISDN call charges.

32. The Janet Videoconferencing Service ISDN Invoicing Service allows registered booking users of Janet Videoconferencing Service to set up ISDN invoicing accounts. Once a user has set up such an account they will be able to book dial-out ISDN videoconferences. All call charges incurred during dial-out ISDN videoconferences will be billed to the ISDN invoicing account associated with the booking user.

33. Janet reserves the right to bar the further booking of ISDN dial-out conferences where a previous invoice is outstanding.

Invoicing

34. Organisations are charged for call charges on a cost-recovery basis. Janet Videoconferencing Service benefits from commercial rates for ISDN call, due to the volume of ISDN calls handled by the service. This saving is passed directly to service users.

35. A standing charge of £10.00 ex VAT is added to each invoice, for each account, to cover administration costs. Organisations should note that they can keep these costs to a minimum by setting up one account with multiple users, rather than having several accounts.

36. Invoices are sent out to registered organisations three times each year, in the middle of April, July and December (broadly in line with the end of academic terms). If the charges incurred by an organisation are minimal, then Janet may take the decision to carry the charges over into the next period, to ensure that administration costs are kept to a minimum.
