

Voice Advisory Service

The Voice Advisory Service provides free advice and guidance to Jisc customers on all aspects of voice technologies, particularly with regard to pre and post purchase of equipment, products or services.

Enquiries

To make an enquiry, in the first instance you should contact service@ja.net ^[1]

Advice to the Jisc community is provided free of charge. We make best endeavours to provide accurate, impartial and unbiased advice, however any information provided regarding specific products should be checked with the relevant suppliers and any cost indications are estimates only - binding quotations should be sought from the appropriate supplier.
